

Technology Gadgets To Pack For Vacation

Stay Connected to The Office and Enjoy Your Vacation with Latest Technology

Atlanta- March 3rd, 2010- With 50 percent of U.S. employers expecting employees to remain in touch during their vacations and more than 25 percent of workers planning to contact their job at least once while they're out, technology is quickly become an essential part of American's vacations.* With a little planning and the right gadgets, employees can enjoy their vacation and stay up to speed at work.

1. Smartphone: These days no one travels far without their right hand man in the form of a smartphone device. Keeping up with the latest information and emails can all be done on the go with the help of a smartphone including iPhone, Blackberry and Google's Android.
2. Cell Phone Signal Booster: Having a reliable cell phone signal is a must to stay in touch with the office. Cell phone signal boosters like zBoost allow consumers to take full advantage of voice, data and Internet services on mobile phones and data devices including 3G high-speed data and video, instant messaging and pictures .zBoost travel units (www.wi-ex.com) including the zPocket and zBoost Dual Band Car Unit, help employees take advantage of their smartphones' voice and data capabilities on the road.
3. Smartpen: The traditional notebook and pen have gone digital. With these devices' recording and data saving abilities, all notes and thoughts can be saved into the single device and transferred directly to the computer at the office. .
4. Readers:. These devices provide a huge database of reading materials all in the form of a slim electronic book to keep up with industry and work related news, as well as enjoy a favorite novel. .

 According to the Careerbuilder.com Survey*

Contact

705 Communications

Deanna Anderson, 404-759-1890

Danderson705@comcast.net